

Chemical designation / Synonyms	Product description
Na ₂ SO ₄ E 514 (i) oder (ii) Disodium sulfate Glauber salt (decahydrate)	Sodium sulfate is a white or colorless sodium salt of sulfuric acid, which is soluble in water. Sodium sulfate can be obtained from a natural source or by bringing about a chemical reaction. In the food industry sodium sulfate is used as a carrier for colorants. Moreover, sodium sulfate is used in the areas of food supplements and pharmaceuticals.